

RULE

Department of Revenue Office of the Secretary

Penalty Waiver (LAC 61:III.2101)

Under the authority of R.S. 47:1603 and R.S. 47:1511 and in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq., the Department of Revenue, Office of the Secretary, adopts LAC 61:III.2101 pertaining to a penalty waiver for delinquent filing or delinquent payment.

The purpose of this rule is to inform the public of the documentation required when submitting requests for waiver of delinquent filing or late payment penalty and of factors that will be considered by the Department of Revenue in evaluating waiver requests. Title 47 Section 1603 provides that if the failure to file on time or the failure to timely remit the full amount due is not due to the negligence of the taxpayer, but is due to other causes set forth in written form and considered reasonable, the secretary may waive the penalty in whole or in part. When the penalty exceeds $5,000, the waiver must be approved by the Board of Tax Appeals.

Title 61

REVENUE AND TAXATION

Part III. Department of Revenue; Administrative Provisions and Miscellaneous

Chapter 21. Interest and Penalties

§2101. Penalty Waiver

A. The secretary may waive a penalty in whole or in part for the failure to file a return on time or the failure to timely remit the full amount due when the failure is not due to the taxpayer's negligence and is considered reasonable. All penalty waiver requests must be in writing and be accompanied by supporting documentation. If the combined penalties for a tax period exceed one hundred dollars, all of the facts alleged as a basis for reasonable cause must be fully disclosed in an affidavit sworn before a notary public in the presence of two witnesses and accompanied by any supporting documentation. The affidavit must be signed by the taxpayer, or in the case of a corporation, by an officer of the corporation. Where the taxpayer or officer does not have personal knowledge of such facts, the sworn affidavit may be signed on the taxpayer's or officer's behalf by a responsible individual with personal knowledge of such facts.

B. Before a taxpayer's request for penalty waiver will be considered, the taxpayer must be current in filing all tax returns and all tax, penalties not being considered for waiver, fees and interest due for any taxes/fees administered by the Department of Revenue must be paid.

C. In determining whether or not to waive the penalty in whole or in part, the department will take in account both the facts submitted by the taxpayer and the taxpayer's previous compliance record with respect to all of the taxes/fees administered by the Department of Revenue. Prior penalty waivers will be a significant factor in assessing the taxpayer's compliance record. Each waiver request submitted by the taxpayer will be considered on an individual basis. Each tax period or audit liability will be considered separately in determining whether the penalty amount mandates approval of the waiver by the Board of Tax Appeals. The delinquent filing and delinquent payment penalties will also be considered separately in making this determination.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 47:1603 and R.S. 47:1511.
