Payment Extension Granted for Tax and Fee Payments Due on November 22, 2019

On November 18, 2019, a ransomware attack impacted operations and services of Louisiana state government¹, including the Louisiana Department of Revenue (“Department”). No state tax returns or confidential taxpayer information was breached during the attack. However, certain services provided by the Department remain delayed as of the publication of this bulletin, specifically the Department’s Louisiana Taxpayer Access Point (“LaTAP”). The purpose of this bulletin is to grant a payment extension only for all tax and fee payments associated with the Motor Fuels Tax return due on November 22, 2019. However, the tax returns due on November 22, 2019, remain due and may be filed by paper and mailed to the Department.

As the Department expects full services to be restored in a matter of a few days, this payment extension is granted until November 27, 2019.

In accordance with LA R.S. 47:1601(A)(2)(c) and 1603(A)(1), any interest and delinquent payment penalty that would otherwise be due will be administratively abated and waived in its entirety if remittance of tax and fee is made in full by November 27, 2019.
