On April 17, 2006, The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana in New Orleans in Secular Humanist Association, Inc. v. Bridges (No. 04-3165, 04/17/2006) issued a preliminary injunction barring the Louisiana Department of Revenue from enforcing the sales tax exclusions for churches, synagogues, and the Society of The Little Sisters Of The Poor. Under Revised Statute 47:301(8)(d) and (e), churches and synagogues were previously excluded from paying the state sales tax on purchases of bibles, song books, and literature used for religious instruction classes, and the Society of the Little Sisters of the Poor was excluded from paying the state sales tax on all purchases.

Unless and until the judicial injunction is lifted, these exclusions cannot be claimed. Churches, synagogues, and the Society of the Little Sisters of the Poor will be required to pay the state sales or use tax on all of their purchases, including those previously excluded from taxation by these two statutes. These organizations will not hereafter be authorized to present, and selling dealers will not hereafter be authorized to accept, exemption certificates in lieu of the sales or use tax on any taxable purchase.
