- The designated mandatary is not restricted as to vendor.
- The designated mandatary is restricted to purchases from the following vendor:

Purchases, leases, and rentals of tangible personal property during this period by the mandatary for use at this manufacturing location shall be considered as the legal equivalent of purchases directly by the designating manufacturer. Should such tangible personal property ultimately be used other than predominately and directly in the manufacturing of tangible personal property or agricultural products for sale, the designating manufacturer and/or the designated mandatary will be liable for the tax. The mandatary is not authorized to delegate this purchasing authority to others; separate designations of mandate by the manufacturer are required for each person who is to purchase eligible manufacturing machinery and equipment on behalf of the manufacturer. The undersigned hereby certify that this designation is the entirety of the mandate contract between them.
